UKE BOX - Clouds Over kunanyi

UKE BOX features video performances of original songs, written and arranged by Tasmanian songwriter Eleanor Tucker. Each arrangement showcases orchestral instruments as well as encouraging ukulele players of all levels to have a go and play-along.

Chord and tab charts are displayed on screen, and each song is followed by an up-close demonstration of ukulele technique. Duplicate videos displaying song lyrics are available as well as support materials for free download, including lead sheets and notes for teachers.

“Each song has been written with the ukulele in mind. I have tried to keep these parts as simple and accessible as possible (mainly 1 & 2 finger chords/ some pentatonic melodies) while simultaneously providing enough variety to retain interest, and extend playing technique.”

Learning Clouds Over kunanyi

kunanyi is the palawa kani name for the mountain that overlooks the city of Hobart, otherwise known as Mount Wellington.

palawa kani is the language of the Tasmanian Aborigines.

“This tune came to while I was imagining sitting on Sphinx Rock up on kunanyi (Mt Wellington), thinking about how the clouds sometimes sit around the Organ Pipes. I love the way they hover then swirl to reveal glimpses of the dolomite cliffs, and then blanket over the scenery once more. Also, how the misty droplets (pizzicato on the violins) from the clouds cling to the spikey plant life on the mountain, bringing extra vibrancy to the greens, the reds, and the greys of the flora. The tubular bell at the beginning and at the end are played as to herald its sacred majesty, while the harp gently and safely carries us up through the treetops with its predictable repetition.
